The Yoka Go.

Dethleffs has taken the term "leisure vehicle" literally. Because the Yoka is all about making the most of your leisure time. What is the Yoka? A motorhome? A camper van? It's the perfect vehicle for active recreational athletes who want to pursue their sport independently, freely and flexibly. With plenty of storage space, a flexible interior design and everything you need to sleep and travel in total comfort.

Extra-large wardrobe with shelves and clothes rail

Large tailgate with window

Bed conversion with 135 cm x 205 cm sleeping area

GRP conversion with full insulation

Rear seating lounge with free-standing multifunctional camping table

Hard-wearing floor with airline rails for flexible mounting options

Preparation for fabric overhead lockers

Exceptionally large double-hinged habitation door with a width of approx. 115 cm

Tremendous feeling of spaciousness thanks to a lack of permanent fixtures and the straight exterior walls

Preparation for an optional 3rd and 4th seat thanks to the floor rail with airline rails

Practical kitchen with induction hob and fresh/waste water tank

A great place to live.

The Yoka Go offers plenty of space to live and transport all your leisure equipment. It adapts to your individual needs and offers everything you need both before and after enjoying your hobby to the fullest.

- 1 2 From a seating lounge with a variable table for 4 people to a three-seat set-up with securely fastened luggage. Everyone and everything has a place in the Yoka Go.
- 3 It doesn't get more practical than this: up to seven travel bags can be conveniently packed at home and then hung from the holders in the Yoka.
- 4 The compact kitchen unit with 10-litre fresh water and 10-litre waste water canisters, large kitchen worktop extension, induction hob and large drawer for the optional compressor cool box.

A great place to sleep.

The seating lounge can be quickly converted into a comfortable bed for two people with a sleeping area of 1.35 m by 2.05 m.

- 1 You can never have enough space: the cupboard with variable shelves offers plenty of space for all kinds of items – from wetsuits to evening dresses.

Even more comfort.

Useful optional equipment and practical accessories make the Yoka Go your tailor-made leisure vehicle.

- 1 Just like in a motorhome, the central functions are adjusted via a dedicated control panel.
- 2 The mosquito net protects you from unwanted visitors.
- 3 The practical LED battery lights can be freely positioned.
- 4 Additional useful storage space is available inside the bench seats. Optionally, these compartments can also be accessed from outside the vehicle.
- 5 The lashing eyes can be freely positioned on the airline rail system to properly secure all kinds of cargo.
- 6 The service flap makes it quick and easy to empty or refill the fresh and waste water tanks; an optional outdoor shower can also be connected here.
